Activity Instructions:

An ideal theme for a residential experience. You could make helmets, suits of armour, build castles out of junk/cardboard or Lego etc. you could also have a medieval banquet.

As an added element, invite the local re-enactment society to bring their costumes or give a demonstration. You could also include a visit to a museum.

If the meeting is around April, why not base the program around St George? Search for "St George" on www.scouts.org.uk/pol
