

Outdoor Adventure Skills by Topic

Navigation

 1	1.5 I can identify the main parts of a compass
 2	2.3 I can read a simple map . 2.4 I can use a compass to find basic directions .
 3	3.3 I can follow a route on an orienteering map. 3.4 ... identify features of a topographical map . 3.5 ... demonstrate the basic use of a GPS unit. 3.6 I can teach another youth how to find directions by using a compass .	 3	 3
 4	4.5 I can use a map and compass together for navigation. 4.6 I can teach another youth how to follow a route on an orienteering map 4.7 I can keep a map dry and safe from the elements. 4.8 I can locate a waypoint that has been pre-programmed into a GPS unit .	 4	 4
 5	5.7 I can use a map and compass to find my position on the ground. 5.8 I can plot a proposed hiking route on a map and obtain ... compass bearings. 5.9 I can input a given waypoint into a GPS and then find it . 5.10 I can teach another youth the basic use of a GPS unit. 5.11 ... find directions without a compass	 5	 5
 6	6.9 I can obtain coordinates from ... a topographical map so that it can be inputted into a GPS unit. 6.10 I can demonstrate the limitations of the compass and other navigation tools. 6.11 I can teach another youth how to find his or her position on the ground using a map and compass .	 6	 5
 7	7.7 I can navigate at night / poor visibility. 7.8 I can use a topographical map to plan a hike in unfamiliar territory.	 7	 6
 8	8.3 I can navigate ... over rough terrain in any type of weather, and at night. 8.4 I can teach ... plan a hike ... using the appropriate tools.	 8  9	 6
		 5	5.9 I can use a compass and/or a GPS device to find direction and travel to a desired location. 5.12 I have hiked a minimum of 5 km in winter conditions following compass bearings .
		 5	6.5 I have navigated to and found 10 geocache locations.
		 5	6.9 I can read and understand a topographical map and can use it and a compass to tell where I am / going on a canoe trip.
		 5	7.8 Using a topographic map and magnetic compass , I have taught younger Scouts to determine their location on a map and to make their way to another location on a map
		 5	8.5 I can find the North Star and identify four of the constellations in the northern sky. 9.5 Using GPS devices , I have set up and facilitated a ten-station outdoor orienteering course ...

Edited for brevity.