

TRI-POD LASHING

To lash three spars together to form a tripod, lay the spars on the ground pointing in alternate directions. Begin with a clove hitch or timber hitch on one of the end spars. Take seven or eight loose lashing turns around all three spars and loose frapping turns in the spaces between. Finish with a clove hitch on the centre spar and hoist the tripod.

